Are Proud to Present:

“Lead-Safe Certified” Renovation! It’s No Longer Discretionary!

Presented by ETC Compliance Solutions

Lead Renovator Rule & Lead Abatement Regulations Wednesday, May 26, 2010

1pm to 3pm

Tucson Association of REALTORS®, 2445 N. Tucson Blvd.

FREE Seminar!

Not Lead-Safe Certified? Disturbing just 6 sq ft could cost you big time!

The nitty-gritty to be addressed at this seminar:

- Who needs lead training?
- Why do I need training at all?
- What happens if I don't get lead trained?
- What's the difference between a Lead Renovator and a Lead Abatement Contractor?
- How will anyone know if I'm trained or not?
- What are "lead safe work" practices?
- How much will this cost me?
- Who do I need to train?
- How do I apply for firm certification?
- Why is there such a push to comply all of a sudden?

Seminar Instructor is Kathleen Lauckner, M.ED

Ms. Lauckner is a Program Director for the UNLV Harry Reid Center for Environmental Studies. She manages the client-based conference and training programs and is presently involved with projects concerning public education on U.S. EPA/HUD Lead activities program, Health Tracking, Environmental Hazards in Real Estate, and Yucca Mountain. She is a part-time instructor for the Environmental Studies Department and is pursuing her Ph.D. in Higher Education Leadership – Workforce Education. She is an expert in conference and training course design and has successfully completed sessions for clients, such as the U.S. EPA; U.S. DOE; National Park Service; Centers for Disease Control; the National Conference of State Legislators; State of Utah; Clark County Health District; and the National Energy Management Inc. As a consultant/instructor for ETC Compliance Solutions, Ms. Lauckner teaches open enrollment and custom on-site classes for EPA/AHERA Asbestos and EPA/OSHA Lead classes.
