REALTORS® 2011 Charity Contributions

Tucson, AZ. – (December 22, 2011) — The Tucson REALTORS® Charitable Foundation is committed to the Tucson community and we are proud to support several local causes this year. In 2011, over $10,000 was contributed to the following organizations:

- Alzheimer's Association
- Tucson Botanical Gardens,
- Achievement Association doing business as GaitWay
- Interfaith Community Service's Emergency Financial Assistance Program
- Interfaith Community Service's Holiday Food Bags for Families in Need Program
- The Community Food Bank

Additionally, over $22,000 was raised for Habitat for Humanity Tucson this year through a variety of fundraisers. Over the past six years, a total of $160,000 has been raised by REALTORS® for Habitat for Humanity Tucson.

"We are proud to provide financial assistance and support to many of our local charities whose initiatives are helping our Tucson community," said Philip Tedesco, RCE, CAE, chief executive officer of the Tucson Association of REALTORS® and executive director of the Tucson REALTORS® Charitable Foundation. "I would like to see the program continue to expand and hope to have the resources to provide even greater assistance in the future."
