TAR Announces New Vice President – Multiple Listing Service

Tucson, AZ. – (September 7, 2011) — TAR, and TAR MLS, welcomes Sean Murphy as the new Vice President, Multiple Listing Service. Sean joins us from Reno, Nevada, where he was with the Northern Nevada Regional MLS (NNRMLS) for the past seven years. Sean studied Business Administration at the University of Nevada, Reno, and majored in Information Technologies.

While at NNRMLS, Sean worked in the capacities of Technical Support Representative, IT Director, and most recently as the Vice President of Technology.

Sean has been heavily involved with the direction of the Paragon MLS Product, and currently serves nationally as Chair of the LPS Real Estate Group Paragon Product Advisory Committee.

Sean is also very familiar with MLS industry issues, as well as with the Fannie Mae Short Sales Assistance Desk, and the Clarity Security SafeMLS product, both of which are already integrated into TAR MLS.

“I think Tucson will be a great fit both personally and professionally,” said Murphy. “I look forward to joining the Tucson Association of REALTORS® team.” Sean will begin work at TAR on Monday, September 26th.

“I am truly excited for Sean’s arrival,” said TAR MLS CEO Philip Tedesco. “In addition to his MLS experience, Sean has a very strong technology background, which will serve us well.
