2012 YEAR END

In the blink of an eye, the 2012 year has come to a close. With each passing year, our market continues to change. Old trends fade away and new trends appear. With the New Year, certainly new trends bring exciting possibilities to the members of TARMLS. While nobody can predict the future, trends can give some insight as to what may happen in the future.

Trends from 2012 are indicative that the housing market may have stopped its free fall. For the first time in several years, numbers indicate 2013 could be a break-through year for Southern Arizona's real estate market.

- More homes are selling. The total sales increased by over 800 units, a 6% increase from 2011.
- Homes are selling quicker. Average Days On Market and Cumulative Days On Market have decreased by about 30% in 2012.
- Many homes are selling for more. Average sales price rose by 6% to just under $174,000.
- Cash sales continue to be at high levels.
  - 2010 – Cash 28%, Conventional 31%, FHA 27%
  - 2011 – Cash 35%, Conventional 30%, FHA 24%
  - 2012—Cash 34%, Conventional 34%, FHA 27%

Additionally, for the first time in several years, Days on Market decreased, and average sales price increased.

This is the time to fully understand what these trends mean to our community's economy and continue to encourage responsible home ownership.

2012 produced a great many productive and positive changes at TARMLS. Our Executive Vice President Sean Murphy led his extraordinary staff in reaching new heights of service to our members.

Leading off 2013, this amazing staff is joined by our new MLS trainer who is ready to help our members learn about the powerful tools flexmls has at our disposal. Please welcome Jeni Huber to the team by registering for MLS classes. With her guidance, I know you will learn some great skills. Please take a moment to thank each of the staff members who serve our members every day. They are truly incredible.

Our Directors and Committee Chairs gave countless hours to the organization in 2012 for which I am forever grateful. I know 2013 will be no different in seeing our volunteer leaders bring their strengths to the table for the good of all. A special thank you goes to CEO Philip Tedesco for guiding the ship in such a way it seems we are always sailing in smooth waters.

2013 stretches before us as a vast number of days for us to enjoy our ever changing market. Let's do our best, make the most of it and serve our clients well. It will be gone in the blink of an eye.

Yours In Service,
Sue Cartun
2012, 2013 TARMLS President
